WHO AM I?

I am someone who loves blending creativity with strategy to make brands stand out online with 9 months of hands-on experience in Healthcare and Life Sciences marketing, most recently at The Palindromic, a go-to-market consultancy and Microsoft AI Cloud Partner.

My expertise lies in LinkedIn strategy, digital engagement, and content-driven marketing. Starting as a LinkedIn Analytics Intern, I quickly grew into a Digital Engagement Specialist, supporting CX/EX transformation projects.

I've designed and executed engagement strategies across LinkedIn and web platforms, managed content ecosystems, and applied analytics-driven insights to fine-tune brand visibility and outreach. With a strong grasp on AI-powered content creation, thought leader campaigns, and multi-channel marketing, I bring a mix of strategy, creativity, and data fluency to every initiative. From boosting profile visibility to nurturing audience relationships, my work focuses on humanizing B2B marketing while maintaining commercial impact.

Beyond work, you'll usually find me sleeping or taking that extra run, experimenting with different coffee brews, or diving into something creative just for fun.

WHAT HAVE I DONE SO FAR?

- Boosted brand visibility via LinkedIn strategies
- Improved content using cross-platform analytics
- Created CX/EX-driven thought leadership content
 - Aligned multi-channel marketing efforts
- Ran LinkedIn experiments with clear outcomes
 - Executed Thought Leader Ad campaigns

Overview of This Project

Slide Description:

Hi there,

This is a detailed and efficient mock marketing project designed to showcase my skill set and the knowledge I've gained through real-time experience and also through pursuing courses.

For this project, I've selected Forbes, a leading global media brand that covers business, investing, technology, entrepreneurship, leadership, and lifestyle.

I've broken down the approach of the problem statement(imaginary)into various content segments to highlight how brand voice, audience engagement, and marketing strategy can be aligned for impact.

Marketing Strategy

Up next, I'm sharing a marketing strategy for the "Voices of the Audience: Powering Forbes' Engagement Through Listening." It's built around the idea that the best way to improve engagement is by truly understanding what the audience cares about. Based on the data we explored earlier, this plan focuses on spotting what's working, where we can do better, and how to create content that really connects.

Summary of Insights

1. Target Persona

Forbes' audience skews toward professionals aged 25–34, primarily from developed regions, with high interest in business, leadership, and finance.

2. Channel Efficiency

52% of traffic comes directly to Forbes, and 26% comes via organic search — indicating strong brand authority and loyal readership.

3. Top Social Platform:

LinkedIn outperforms other platforms in terms of engagement rate and content interaction, especially for thought leadership and economic analysis content.

4. Competitive Edge & Content Gaps:

Key competitors like Reuters, CNBC, and The Guardian show a decline in engagement, presenting Forbes a chance to capitalize on refreshed storytelling, especially in AI, entrepreneurship, and tech innovation.

5. Regional Search Interest Trends:

High search volume and engagement for content around “content engagement” and “social media engagement” in states like California, New York, and Illinois — ideal for localized campaigns.
